

Finding RNAi products using sequence information

Last Modified on 03/02/2022 6:05 pm EST

Search by target/protein rather than by a specific sequence

It is not possible to search our database by mRNA sequence at this time. Although our technology extracts RNAi sequences from the literature (read more about it here), developing systems that understand the variability in how you can type sequences (e.g. syntax, length, directionality, etc.) is a challenge we are working on so that we are sure we
